BISHOP TO ACT

Alfred of Honolulu Says He Will Revoke License.

IS AFTER REV. ALEX. MACKINTOSH

Issue Made in a Quarrel of Long Standing—Marriages and Baptisms—Next Step.

Alfred Willis, Bishop of Honolulu, has served notice that upon his return from Maui in a few days he will proceed to revoke the license of Rev.
Alex. Mackintosh, pastor of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral. This is all within the English church here.

If the license of Rev. Mr. Mackintosh is taken from him, which intent on the part of his ecclesiastical superior is evident and said to be fixed, it will mean practically the retirement of the popular clergyman from the pulpit.
Deprived of credentials from the Bishop, Rev. Mr. Mackintosh would be divested of such authority as he has from the church ruler here for the performance of duties that have heretofore come within the scope of his labors.

There is talk already of an independent congregation for Rev. Mr.
Mackintosh. There is already one such institution. It was set up in Punahou by Rev. John Ussher, who established and continues St. Clement's Chapel in open rebellion against the Bishop of Honolulu. If personally the Bishop, Rev. Mr. Mackintosh would have a large following, for his congregation at present comprises almost the entire body of the membership of the church locally.

On the part of Rev. Mr. Mackintosh there is absolute refusal to discuss the future. He would neither confirm nor deny the report that he had been informed that he was to be "cast out," so to speak. But it can be stated positively that the Bishop has put it in writing that he will, as stated above, recall, in a few days, the license of Rev. Mr. Mackintosh.

It has been a fact of public notoriety for years that the Bishop has disliked Rev. Mr. Mackintosh. The Bishop is incommunicado on the basis of ordinary communication between common mortals, but it has been clear that he has long been awaiting a favorable opportunity to strike his best known priest a church death-blow.

The Bishop has had one of the two congregations and the members generally have chosen to take service at the other, where Rev. Mr. Mackintosh led. Rev. Mr. Mackintosh has moved up to the present day in his church work, has affiliated with other denominations in charitable work, has encouraged choral features in the services, has made friends in every quarter. The Bishop of Honolulu, on the contrary, has been exceedingly "high" in his church notions and has held aloof from the common people. There has been a gulf between the men for a long time. Rev. Mr. Mackintosh has taken no active part in politics, but has been unable to conceal his wish for reform in Governmental matters, thus calling forth the accusation of partisanship. The Bishop paid little attention to state affairs till a new and general law cut support off from one of his pet institutions. Then, as a New York paper has said, he proceeded to refer to the Government as "Mr. Dole's Republic." He selected, in his church magazine, a large sized question mark for the description.

The Bishop has had not the slightest trouble in working up a case against Rev. Mr. Mackintosh, laying the indignity, conducting the trial, finding the verdict and passing sentence, entirely unassisted. The Bishop is King here in the English church. There is not one to say him nay. In the past there was once an appeal to the Archbishop of Canterbury. That dignitary responded that he had not control over the lonesome and mighty Alfred. Alfred has been an independent monarch-archy of himself. He has been the center pole of his own circus tent.

Latest charges against Rev. Mr.
Mackintosh by the Bishop are concerning happenings of the past summer. In both cases Rev. Mr. Mackintosh acted to comply with the wishes of people to get married. He admitted into the church in some degree at one time a Hebrew and at another a Chinaman.
The Hebrew is a young business man of this city whose wife is an estimable Hawaiian young lady. The Chinaman's wife is also a Hawaiian. It is claimed by the Bishop that these people accepted communication with the church merely to carry out their matrimonial plans. It is represented that the Chinaman does not understand at all what has been done and that the Hebrew accepted baptism with reservation. Further, the Bishop claims that he has discovered that the Chinaman has a wife already in the Flowery Kingdom.

So far as can be learned, Rev. Mr.
Mackintosh has temperately replied that he believed the Hebrew was in earnest and had at least complied with all the requirements to which a good churchman is subject. It has come out that the Hebrew once visited the Bishop to talk of joining the English church, but was turned away with a sharp rebuff. This is said to be the statement of the man himself and it is understood that the Bishop tells of having some converse with the Hebrew. The young lady in this case belonged to one of the best known of Hawaiian families and one that has for many years been with the Anglican church.

The Chinaman is a resident of Waialua, has been in Hawaii fifteen years and was fifteen years of age when he came to the Islands. He may, or may not have a wife and children back in China. Rev. Mr. Mackintosh replied to the Bishop at one time that most searching inquiry touching the record of the Chinaman had been made.

These are the facts from reliable people and the steps that are to be taken by "Alfred Honolulu" will cause a trouble that amongst brethren will be beautiful to behold.

FOR PETER LEE

Testimonial to Retiring Hotel Manager.

Commendation of People Who Have Seen at Volcano House.
Warm Words.

Guests, who have visited the Volcano house while Mr. Peter Lee had the management of it, have written the appended testimonial to show their appreciation of his untiring efforts and courtesies extended them while there.
To whom it may concern:

We, whose names are hereunto subscribed, take pleasure in stating, that we have each known Mr. Peter Lee, late manager of the Volcano house, intimately for many years last past; that we have maintained business and social relations with him and have found him, at all times, courteous, obliging and a gentleman under all circumstances; that we know him to be a man of unquestioned honor and integrity; that we have frequently been guests of the Volcano house during Mr.
Lee's management, and we especially desire to bear witness to the excellence of the service rendered, to his uniform kindness, and to his vigilance and watchful care in anticipating the wishes, comfort and pleasure of his guests.

We also wish to express our unshaken confidence in Mr. Lee and to assure him that he has our esteem and confidence and best wishes for his happiness and prosperity in the future.

A SEATTLE SHIP

Liner Centennial Joins City of Columbia Here.

MAN IN AUTHORITY ABOARD

Will Straighten Out Matters—Fails to Find Local Conspiracy—To Make a Bid for Sugar.

The Seattle-Honolulu Steamship Company's steamer Centennial, Capt.
B. B. Whitney, docked at Pacific Mail wharf last Saturday from Seattle with a full cargo of freight, valued at $17,000 and forty-nine passengers. She sailed directly to Honolulu and will lie here five days before proceeding to Hilo, where she will remain a couple of days and then proceed back to Seattle, arriving home from her first trip in this trade the first week in November.

J. P. Jacobsen is one of the passengers, and comes to Honolulu fully equipped with bonds, power of attorney and money to extricate the steamer City of Columbia from her difficulties.
It is expected that the latter vessel will be able to at once proceed on her way home.

Mr. Jacobsen was interviewed on the Centennial last evening and gave some information as to the future movements of the steamers Centennial and City of Columbia.

The City of Columbia on her arrival in Seattle will prepare for her return to Honolulu with a general cargo and a list of passengers consisting of about one hundred excursionists from St.
Paul, who will arrive in Seattle the first week in November and be expected to sail on that steamer on November 9th for Honolulu. This excursion will include some of the people of Minnesota who have been accustomed to spending their winters in Florida or Mexico and this initial excursion will, it is expected, bring many others to visit the Islands who chase for sunny climes in the winter season. The Centennial will follow the City of Columbia in monthly trips.

"I find," said Mr. Jacobsen, "that the rumor that Honolulu is inimical to our line is quite unfounded and that we have as good a chance and as fair a field here as any other line. I see no reason why we cannot take some of the 100,000 tons of sugar destined for the New York refinery to Seattle for shipment over the Great Northern railway. This line has now through connections complete. Not only has James J. Hill, who now controls the Great Northern Railway, the Baltimore & Ohio system, but also there is a fine line of freighters running from Duluth to New York through the Great Lakes.
In that way the northern line is as against the Southern Pacific has great advantages. Nor would this interfere with the traffic of the sailing vessels, a fear of which seems to be felt by some of their owners in Honolulu. The sailing vessels can take their part of the sugar output to Seattle and there load lumber, general merchandise, feed stuffs or coal, all of which we have in abundance, thence to Honolulu. There is a much better field for getting cargoes on Puget Sound for Honolulu than in San Francisco, once connections are established."

Another passenger by the Centennial is E. M. Williams, representing the firm of Gordon & Company, of Seattle, who are going to buy bananas here and ship Washington products in return.
He will endeavor to get a full load of bananas for the Centennial before her departure.

Hilo is destined to be a way station eventually, for it is reported on board that the Centennial and City of Columbia would, after this month, sail direct from Seattle for Honolulu, thence to Hilo and back again to Honolulu. One of the steamers will be dispatched each month from Seattle and is expected to complete the round trip with the necessary stops in that time. It is thought the Centennial may get away on Wednesday.

The passengers on board the Centennial were mostly mechanics or people looking for a chance to locate. They were all a very respectable lot, and one, Isaac Cathcart, is a wealthy man on the Sound. Four of the passengers were destined for Hilo.

AT THE CAMPS

Many Movement Rumors Afloat
Barracks.

All was rumor at the two military camps yesterday. The men at Ota are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the U. S. Transport Steamship Arizona and are ready to move to the waterfront on notice of five minutes or less.

The men at McKinley are very much in doubt. Yesterday work was resumed on some of the barracks buildings. At one time it was reported that there would be no movement whatever from the camp.

The very latest was that the Engineers and one battalion of the First New York would remain at McKinley and the rest of the permanent garrison would be scattered to camps in the neighborhood of Honolulu.

Assurance is now given that if Mr.
Kinley camp is kept clean there is no further danger of disease, but those seen to be on the safe side are urging that some of the large community be taken elsewhere.

Sanitary work is the order of the day both at McKinley and Ota. The old sink system is abandoned entirely and the earth closet plan has been put into use. It is believed that this will ward off disease.

Wedding at Ewa.

There was a very pretty wedding at Ewa plantation last evening. At the home of Manager W. J. Lowrey, there were united for life Chas. Ferguson and Miss Charlotte Voss. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr.
Morgan. Quite a company was present, including a number of people from town. After the wedding refreshments were served and there was a ball.
Chas. Voss was best man and H. Voss gave the bride away, while Thos.
O'Dowda was groomsmen. The bride was attended by Misses Hazel Jennings and Clara Lowrey. Mr. Ferguson is head lina at Ewa. The bride is the sister of the chief engineer. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson will leave by the S. S.
Aorangi for a wedding tour.

COON'S CASE UP

Fight Against Payment of Forfeited Bail.

Claim of No Jurisdiction Crops Ou Again—A Decision From Kauai.
Rental Matter.

Judge Hardy of the Fifth Circuit Court, Kauai, rendered a decision in the case of Aalona vs. Kaapuni, action to quiet title; jury waived. Title to one-fourth of the land in dispute is awarded to defendant as one of the heirs of Hauwalaia. Plaintiff takes nothing and pays costs.

A demurrer was filed yesterday by defendant's attorney in the case of A.
M. Brown, Marshal vs. Willard J.
Coon, et al. Marshal Brown brought an action on a bond against Coon and the demurrer is based on the grounds that Coon is not guilty of any statutory misdemeanor against the laws of the United States of America; that at the time of the alleged breach, the Republic of Hawaii had ceased to exist. That the defendant could not be tried by the courts of the United States for an offense committed against the sovereignty of the Republic of Hawaii, which Government had ceased to exist at the time of the alleged breach. Geo.
A. Davis is attorney for defendant.

Coon was arrested with opium in his possession and "jumped" $1,000 bail.
One of the bondsmen paid $500.

Judge Perry spent the entire day listening to the argument of attorneys in the assumpsit case of Oookala Sugar Plantation Co. vs. John Wilson. Plaintiff claims to have paid defendant more rent money than was due him, which defendant refuses to reimburse.
Kinney & Ballou for plaintiff; L. A.
Thurston for defendant.
